

Camp@Home – Activity List

The activities are split down into sessions, you may want to do all of them or only some of them, you do not need to try and squeeze them all in over the weekend!

We have tried to design the programme around items we think most people may have at home, but there may be some bits you will need to get in advance of the weekend.

Do not feel restricted by our list, it is not exhaustive, and every family is individual and unique. Each of you will want to get different things from your Camp@Home. Please do be as creative as you want to be with your ideas and adapt the activities to suit what you have especially those of you still shielding or self-isolating; when spreading your wings beyond your own home is difficult.
